Sam Cann, '09, married Jessie Kuipers on December 12, 2009. He is the youth pastor at Oak Crest Baptist Church.

Audrey Durham, '06 ('09), completed her master's in education at Anderson University in December 2009.

Marya Clever, '09, wed Adam Erdesky on September 20, 2009. She is a lead teacher at Chesterbrook Academy in Matthews, N.C.

David Crowther, '09, was ordained by Keowee Baptist Church in Honea Path on November 22, 2009. He is a grad student at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Ky. and pastor of Elmburg Baptist Church.

Jarad Watts, '09, and Maegan Lunsford, '09, were married December 19, 2009, at the First Baptist Church in Berea.

Lori Butler, '09, is a first grade teacher with Richland School District Two in Lexington.

Sara G. Crocker, '09, is employed by the Anderson County Museum as programs and education coordinator, volunteer coordinator, and sales associate.

John Miller, '09, married Gleyndra Craig, a current student at Anderson, on June 12, 2010, at White Springs Baptist Church. He is the manager of Zaxby's in Anderson.

Christine Drum, '09, is a fourth grade teacher at Nursery Road Elementary in Columbia.

Cory Welch, '09, wed Meredith Miller, '10, on July 17, 2010. He is a physical education teacher and baseball coach for Southside High School in Greenville.

Jena Knight, '09, wed Brett Putnam in June 2009. She is a fourth grade teacher at Powdersville Elementary School.

Mary Kathyrn Robinson, '09, is employed by Palmetto Children's Hospital in Columbia in the child life department.

Cassie Dudley, '09, wed Bill Batson on June 20, 2009.

Meredith Neely, '09, and Wellington Payne, '09, were married on May 30, 2009, at Greer First Baptist Church.

Greg Loftis, '09, and Rebecca Glanville, '09, were married May 9, 2009, at Ebenezer Baptist Church in West Union. Greg is pursuing a degree in occupational therapy at the U.S.C. Medical College in Charleston while Rebecca attends the College of Dentistry.

Katie Van Gieson, '09, wed Christopher Harrison on August 7, 2010, at Taylors First Baptist Church. Katie is pursuing her MBA at Anderson.

Jada S. Hazlett, '09, is pursuing her master's in educational technology from Winthrop University.

Katie Allgood, '09, wed Travis Anthony Boiter on May 30, 2009, at First Baptist Church in Pickens.

Laura B. Crowther, '09, is a patient care coordinator for LifeScan in Louisville, Ky.

Joanna Dickerson, '09, wed Logen Watkins on May 23, 2009, at First Baptist in Honea Path.

Steve Harring, '09, is pursuing his master's at Southwestern Seminary.

Meredith Harris, '09, is teaching ninth grade English at Fox Creek High School in North Augusta.

Elizabeth Bundy, '09, is pursuing her master's in human resource development at Clemson University. She is currently employed with HTI Employment Solutions in Anderson as branch coordinator.

Cacy Crocker, '09, wed Adam Rice on April 3, 2010, at Sadlers Creek State Park in Anderson. She is a first grade teacher at Starr Elementary School.

April Boom, '09, is a data analyst with Follett Software Company in Greenville.

Andrew Price, '09, is a math teacher at TL Hanna High School in Anderson.

Heidi Laney, '09, wed Rodriguez Deshan Pitts. They welcomed daughter Abrie Denae on October 20, 2009. Heidi is the director of Bright Eyes Kindergarten in Greenville.

Lauren Reilly, '09, is an early intervention specialist with Easter Seals in Columbia.

Aaron Simpson, '09, is a youth mentor for Miracle Hill Ministries Children's Home in Greenville and is also a distributor for MonaVie.
Lauren Owen, ’09, wed Andy Daniels on October 3, 2009, in the garden of The AmazingTurner Inn.

Heather Martin, ’09, is an executive assistant for Management Sciences for Health.

Travis Cain, ’08, wed Lindsey Michelle Whitfield on November 21, 2009, at First Baptist in Anderson. He is employed by Behavior Health Services.

Shanika Simpson, ’08, is a vendor with Acosta Sales.

Ashley Clark, ’08, is a special education teacher with Anderson School District One.

Magon Wilson, ’08, is a third grade teacher at Laurens Elementary.

Phillip Howard, ’08, is the job coach (careers) and varsity boys basketball assistant coach at Palmetto High School in Williamston.

Jeslyn Cash, ’08, wed Chris Lanier on May 8, 2010. She is a media ministry assistant at First Baptist in Spartanburg.

Brad Brinkley, ’08, wed Taylor Payne on May 15, 2010. He will start the MFA Actor Training program at the University of Connecticut in the fall of 2011.

Brandon Loudermilk, ’08, completed his master’s in industrial/organizational psychology at Louisiana Tech University. He is now pursuing his Ph.D. in education research, measurement, and statistics at the University of South Carolina and working as a data analyst for Richland School District Two.

Jennifer K. Patterson, ’08, and husband Alex were expecting their first child in July 2010. Jennifer is a property manager.

Maggie Irwin, ’08, earned her master’s in graphic communications from Clemson University in May 2010. She is now employed with Quad Graphics, Inc., located in Wisconsin.

Rachel Wines, ’08, wed Bryan Lee Beeson on December 12, 2009, at Ebenezer Presbyterian Church in Rock Hill. Both are employed by Anderson School District One.

Clay Williamson, ’08, is the club manager at Saluda Valley Country Club in Williamston.
Heather Strickland, ’07, is a physical therapist assistant at AnMed Rehabilitation Hospital in Anderson.

Jessie Whiteside, ’07, wed Stephanie Carroll on June 12, 2010, at St. Peter’s Catholic Church in Beaufort. He is an account representative with Aramark in Charlotte, N.C.

Mitchell Moss, ’07, wed Destiny Marie Moore on May 8, 2010, at New Life Baptist Church in Union. He is a history teacher and coach at Sims Middle School in Union.

Megan D. Britt, ’07, is a teacher at Lake Mary Prep in Lake Mary, Fl. She and her husband Kenny have one son Cale.

David Slone, ’07, was awarded first place for his oil painting "A Violent Display" in the 31st Annual Juried South Carolina Artist’s Exhibition at the Pickens County Museum.

Meagan Butler, ’07, wed Bobby Reynolds on June 12, 2010, at Second Baptist Church in Belton.

Miranda D. Humphries, ’07, is a special education teacher at Lakeside Middle School.

Howard Braden, ’07, is a third grade teacher at Round Lake Elementary in Mt. Dora, Fl., his hometown.

Amanda Payne, ’07, married Brad Samuels on June 21, 2008. She is an adoption specialist with S.C. Department of Social Services - Region I.

Darryl Gambrell, ’07, is an applications analyst for Clemson University.

Bailey Smoak, ’07, married Andy Rountree on July 18, 2009. She is an administrative assistant for New Covenant Church in Anderson.

Lindsey B. Wade, ’06, was named Teacher of the Year for 2010-11 at Starr-Iva Middle School, where she teaches Algebra 1.

Tracy Davis, ’06, earned her master’s of music in musical theatre from The University of Montana in May 2009. On October 10, 2009, she married Matthew Davenport. They live in Charlotte, N.C., where Tracy teaches voice and piano for the Charlotte Academy of Music.

Stephen Russ, '06, earned his master's from Wake Forest University School of Divinity on May 17, 2010.

Taylor Johnson, '06, wed Justin Bailey Moore on May 15, 2010, at First Baptist of Aiken. She is an associate attorney with the Ramsdale Law Firm in Charleston.

Joshua Harrison, '06, is a physical education teacher and baseball coach at Walhalla Elementary School in Walhalla.

Jacqueline L. Volz, '06, is an account manager with CreateSpace and an event coordinator/owner with Sweetgrass Social Event and Design.

Julie Daniels, '06, received her master's degree in social work from Winthrop University on May 7, 2009.

Graham Culbertson, '06, is minister of students and families at Neel Road Baptist Church in Salisbury, N.C.

Mandy Page, '06, wed Jon Adams on December 12, 2009, at Standing Springs Baptist Church in Simpsonville.

DuPre Keys, '06, wed Emily Baker Bland on May 15, 2010, at Mayesville Presbyterian Church. He is a producer for the Keys Agency of Palmetto Insurance in Belton.

Alexis S. Crawford, '06, and husband Timothy have one daughter, Addison Alexis who was born August 28, 2008.

Jeremy Goodwyne, '06, is the worship director for Uptown Church in Charlotte, N.C.

Amanda Splawn, '05, married Chris Locotosh on April 24, 2010.

Liz A. Power, '05, is a student at Southern Seminary in Louisville, Ky. She and husband John welcomed son Timothy James on September 16, 2009. Older brother Eliot was born on January 24, 2008.

Robin Bracken, '05, was the Teacher of the Year for 2009-10 at Calhoun Academy of the Arts in Anderson.
Timothy Pitts, ’05, is a head teller at the Seneca branch of the Oconee Federal Savings & Loan Association.

Jonathan Williams, ’05, will complete his master’s in divinity at Reformed Theological Seminary in Charlotte in May 2010.

Alphaeus Anderson, ’05, was named an Upstate Black History Maker in February 2010 by 107.3 JAMZ radio. His children’s choir project, “We are Different,” received a nomination for a 2010 Stellar Award.

Sarah Swofford, ’05, will pursue a joint Ph.D. in English and education at the University of Michigan beginning fall 2010. She was awarded the School of Education Scholar’s Award.

Helen R. Williams, ’05, is the proud grandmother of her tenth grandchild. She is a unit secretary with AnMed Health’s Women’s and Children’s Hospital.

Mary Anne Deal, ’05, is a world language teacher at Carolina Springs Middle School in Lexington.

Jessica Colman, ’05, continues to serve in the US Air Force and was recently relocated to Charleston AFB.

Marian Smith, ’05, welcomed daughter Addison Olivia on September 5, 2008. She will complete her master’s in counseling psychology in December 2009.

Jackson Walker, ’05, wed Lauren Susanne Ivey on December 19, 2009, at First Baptist chapel in Huntsville, Ala. Jackson graduated from the Auburn University College of Veterinary Medicine in 2009 and is practicing at Hope Animal Clinic in Bessemer, Ala.

Andrew Pressley, ’05, earned his master’s from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. He is now the assistant pastor for music ministry at First Baptist Church in Lindale, Texas.

Emerald S. Holliday, ’04, is a physical therapist assistant for Platinum Select.

Keri E. Marlar, ’04, and husband Daniel welcomed the arrival of daughter Callie Brooklyn on November 30, 2009.

Lisa Embry-Franklin, ’04, is a therapist for Greenville Mental Health.

Leonard Galloway, '04, has been named the new principal of Varennes Academy of Communications and Technology in Anderson for the 2010-2011 school year.

Erica B. Coates, '04, and husband Adam welcomed son Samuel Kenneth on September 1, 2009. Erica and her husband are helping to plant a Vineyard church in the Asheville area. Erica is also a family therapist with Access Family Services.

Suzanne S. Swift, '03, and Micah Swift, '02, have three girls: Emma Kate (born January 30, 2007) and twins Addie and Ella (born May 25, 2009).

Sabrina Whatley, '03, is a commercial interior designer with Alfred Williams & Co.

Shannon T. Vaughn, '03, and husband Chase welcomed their first child, daughter Anna Marie, on November 25, 2009.

Tracy West, '03, is serving as children's ministry assistant at Taylors First Baptist Church and growing her business as a wedding and portrait photographer through T-West Studios. In 2009 she was selected by the Greenville Metropolitan Art's Counsel to join the newest phase of downtown art studios. You can check out her latest work at http://tweststudios.com.

Meredith Irby, '03, and Jamey Long, '06, were married on September 19, 2009, at Concord Baptist Church in Anderson.

Heather Stokes, '03, wed Wesley Dean Stephen Prieshoff on October 10, 2009, at the Cherokee Valley Country Club in Travelers Rest. She is a sales representative with Sciele Pharma Sales, Inc.

Beth Foster, '03, wed Alex Paul Hoffee on June 20, 2009. The couple lives in New Jersey where Beth is working on her master's in voice pedagogy and performance at Westminster Choir College.

Katie Hadden, '03, married Arthur William Brooks on September 26, 2009. She is a physician assistant with The Christie Pediatric Group in Greenville.
Mia D. McDowell, ’02, is an extern student in the chaplaincy program in the Pastoral Care Service Department at AnMed Medical Center in Anderson. She is also in the process for Holy Orders in the Episcopal Church.

Tabitha Stewart, ’02, wed Gary Shorter on April 3, 2009. She is currently the transitional employment coordinator for a non profit agency titled TAP (Total Action against Poverty). Tabitha will complete her doctoral program in public policy and administration from Walden University in 2010.

Jennifer P. Williams, ’02, is a designer for Schwebach.

Candice K. Lapham, ’02, is an attorney with Harrison, White, Smith & Coggins, P.C., in Spartanburg.

Becca Hardeman, ’02, received her master’s in intercultural studies from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, N.C. on May 28, 2010.

Meredith B. Smith, ’02, and husband Jason welcomed daughter Aislyn Tracy on May 14, 2009. Meredith is a private banking business analyst with The South Financial Group.

David Locke, ’02, and Robin Kelly Irvin were married June 5, 2010, at the Daniel Memorial Chapel on Furman University’s campus in Greenville. David is the founder and owner of Locke Design in Anderson.

Stephanie C. Cavin, ’01, and husband David adopted son Tyson Reed on June 1, 2009. Daughter Madison Taylor is six.

Cari Carter, ’01, is in her second year at Seneca High School and her first year at Seneca Middle School. Prior to beginning employment in Oconee County, she worked for five years in Abbeville County at Dixie High School. Cari completed her M.Ed. in school counseling at Clemson University in 2009.

Baron Moehlenbrock, ’01, wed Elizabeth Ann Crawford on December 13, 2009, at Swann House in Washington, D.C. He is now a captain in the United States Army.

Lauren Brown, ’01, completed her master’s in teaching at Converse College in December 2009.

Gary Bailey, ’01, is an accountant with the firm of George N. Love, CPA in Laurens. He continues to serve as CFO for The New Image Group as well.

Brandi Aiken, ’01, is the physical education teacher and head softball coach at Byrnes High School. She recently received National Board Certification in physical education.

Carmelita S. Bryant, ’00, is a compliance specialist with the S.C. Vocational Rehabilitation Department in Columbia. She and husband Wesley have one son Chandler. Carmelita completed her master's in public administration from Strayer University in June 2009.

Ciamelle Miller, ’00, received her master's from Clemson University in December 2009. Her degree was in industrial engineering with a concentration in logistics and transportation. She is a senior logistics specialist with Robert Bosch L.L.C. in Anderson.

Nichole Chestnut, ’00, earned her master's in special education through Grand Canyon University Online. She was inducted into Alpha Epsilon Gamma, the university's chapter of Kappa Delta Pi International Honor Society in Education.

Debbie West, ’00, graduated from the University of N.C. at Greensboro with a doctorate in Educational Leadership and Cultural Foundations. She will begin teaching at Eastern Kentucky University's Educational Leadership and Policy Studies Department in the fall of 2010.

1990s

Darian Krimm, ’97, is director of music and worship arts at First United Methodist Church of Jackson, Tenn.

Travis Bowers, ’97, is pastor of Georges Creek Baptist Church in Easley.

Tonya B. Dymond, ’97, is an area sales manager with DISH Network.

Paul Dymond, ’97, is a regional sales manager with Stratus Building Solutions.

Sheri Whitworth, ’97, was named Teacher of the Year for 2009-10 at Cedar Grove Elementary in Belton, where she is the music teacher.

Becky Pressley, ’96, has returned to Erskine College as director of Financial Aid.
Candice C. Kirven, ’96, was awarded the C.F. Reames Distinguished Teacher Award by Anderson University at the spring honor’s convocation. Candice is a fourth grade teacher at Concord Elementary in Anderson.

Deborah Jones, ’96, wed Jerry Evans on December 27, 2008. She is an elementary music teacher with Laurens School District 55.

Adrienne Williams, ’96, and Steven Cole, ’95, were married on April 17, 2010, at Townville Baptist Church.

Shane McLane, ’95, married Brandi Whitten in early 2009. They welcomed son Carris-Timothy Nicholson on September 16, 2009. They have an older daughter AnaBelle’ Nean.

Rachel Harley, ’95, wed Preston Rish on February 27, 2010, at the University of Georgia chapel in Athens, Ga. She is the general manager of the Belk store in Albany, Ga.

Cathy Dryden, ’94, married Nick Trolian on March 28, 2009. She has two children: daughter Gina (4) and step daughter Valerie (10). Cathy is the office manager for The Zepponi Group, a commercial real estate sales and development company.

Dusty Lollis, ’95, is a partner and vice president with Merrimack Mortgage in Greer.

Bryan Wood, ’93, wed Crissie Lynn Smith on May 15, 2010, at Pleasant Grove Baptist Church in Greer. He is the safety coordinator at Rescom Construction in Greenville.

Stephen Hattrich, ’92, is the administrator of the Columbia Area Mental Health Center.

Sally B. Lung, ’92, will marry James R. “Jamie” Smith on May 15, 2010, at The Grove Park Inn in Asheville, N.C.

David Richardson, ’91, is now pastor of First Baptist Church in Sebring, Fl. He and his wife Lara have four children.

Steve Wolf, ’90, is the director of the Pennsylvania Center for Green Careers.

Brian Waters, ’90, is minister of students at Fellowship Baptist Church in Rome, Ga.

1980s
Dawn G. McCoy, ’89, is a media assistant for Ridge Elementary School in Maryland.

Lynne B. Matthews, ’86, is the student secretary at Warwick Academy (Bermuda).

Mandee H. Stone, ’85, is a supervisor for pharmacy “over the counter” merchandise and a registered pharmacy technician for Wal-Mart.

Helen T. Heaton, ’83, is a sales consultant and facilitator for Sales Performance International in Charlotte, N.C.

Christina E. Beard, ’81, is a RN for Moore Regional Hospital’s neonatal intensive care unit. She and her husband William have two daughters, Rachel Elizabeth and Sarah Evelyn.

Steven Kenrick, ’81, is a corporate videographer for UHS-Pruitt Corporation.

Peter Pristach, ’80, is in his third year at Washington and Lee University in Lexington, Va., as assistant men’s tennis coach and assistant director of the Duchossois Tennis Center.

1970s

Nancy M. Arrington, ’77, earned her Ph.D. in curriculum and instruction from Clemson University in May 2010. She is retiring from Anderson School District Five after 29 years of teaching service and will begin a new career in August as an assistant professor in the College of Education at Georgia Southern University.

Dale Cochran, ’77, received a Museum Purchase Award in the 31st Annual Juried South Carolina Artist’s Exhibition at the Pickens County Museum.

Doug Poole, ’76, is now the chef for corporate dining at American Institute of Certified Public Accountants’ regional office in Durham, N.C.

Peggy M. Gale, ’74, was appointed to a seat on the Historical Commission of the Town of Mount Pleasant. Peggy McNab Gale, ’74, and her husband Larry have opened Perceptual Systems, LLC, an information technology firm in Mount Pleasant. She is the director of business development while her husband serves as chief information officer. You can learn more at www.perceptualsystems.com.

Larry Thompson, ’74, is a chaplain with VITAS Hospice in Ft. Lauderdale, Fl.
Randy Creamer, ‘73, continues his work with the North American Mission Board as the coordinator for Baptist Builders and Campers On Mission.

Carol L. Russell, ‘71, is a commercial senior underwriter with Canal Insurance Company in Greenville.

1960s

Susan J. Brown, ‘68, is a retired teacher with Greenville County Schools. She and her husband Mike, who have been married over 41 years, have one daughter and two grandchildren.

Gib Rogers, ‘65, coordinates the Dixie Youth Baseball World Series “O” Zone format for the Umpires. He also sings with the South Carolina Baptist Singing Churchmen.

Johnny Sosebee, ‘61, has been elected to serve a term on the S.C. Consumer Affairs Commission.

1950s

Leon Smith, ‘59, is enjoying his retirement after pastoring for 43 years.

Leila Chappell, ‘51, was honored by Dawson County officials in March 2010 in recognition of her 32 years of service as the director of the county-run daycare center. The daycare building is now the election office and was renamed The Chappell Building in her honor.

In memoriam

Rhonda Galbreath, ‘89, died January 7, 2010. She was formerly employed with Fluor Daniel and Greenpoint Credit Corporation.

Agnes Raney, ‘72, died September 9, 2009. She served at Anderson University from 1966-1978 as director of the college news service and as publications advisor. Before that she was a reporter/photographer and society and features editor for the Laurens Advertiser from 1958-1964. Agnes was a member and former president of the Camellia Garden Club, a charter member of the Laurens District Genealogy Association chapter, and a former member of the Baptist Public Relations Association of South Carolina, Gamma Beta Phi honorary journalism society, and the Anderson Professional Women's Club. A member of First Baptist Church, she was a former leader of the Girls’ Auxiliary, WMU Circle Leaders, and an officer of the Clara Smith Sunday School Class.
Jane Rowland, ’71, died May 23, 2010. She was a secretary for The J.F. Floyd Mortuary in Spartanburg. A member of Spartanburg First Baptist, Jane was a member of the Sanctuary Choir and the Single Adult Ministry for over 30 years.

Margie Loyd Strout, ’71, died December 13, 2009. She was a retired library clerk with the Judsonville Public Library.

John Steven Riter, ’70, died March 1, 2010. He was a special education teacher for 33 years.

Mike Gray, ’69, died November 24, 2009. He was the founder and owner of Hartwell Lake Properties. He was an active member of many community organizations including the Lake Hartwell Municipal Chamber Coalition, the Hartwell 660 Coalition for Lake Levels, the Anderson County Chamber of Commerce, the Anderson Board of Education, the Anderson, SC Downtown Development and the Anderson Rotary Club. A member of the Good Hope Baptist Church, Mike attended First Baptist of Iva.

Sandra Lee Marse, ’68, died October 23, 2009. She was an assistant vice president of commercial training and development for Bank of America in Charlotte, N.C.

Clarence Nealy Estes Jr., ’64, died April 23, 2010. After Anderson, he went on to further his education at The Baptist College of Charleston, the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and received his doctorate from Luther Rice Seminary. During Dr. Estes’ life he pastored at Emmanuel Baptist Church, Pine Level Baptist Church, Saint Helena Baptist Church, Grace Community Baptist Church and Nichols Baptist Church.

Jerry Ables, ’67, died November 15, 2009. He formerly served as music minister at Geer Memorial Baptist Church in Easley, First Baptist in Ware Shoals, and First Baptist in North Spartanburg. He was on staff at First Baptist of Bossier, La., for 25 years.

Joan Harbin, ’65, died November 12, 2009. She retired from Yeargin Construction and was a member of Pelzer Presbyterian Church.

John Erskine, ’65, died August 12, 2009. He served in the U.S. Army and retired from Bell South after thirty-two years.

Robert Broome, ’63, died July 11, 2009. He had served in the U.S. Navy and was an upholsterer for more than 35 years. He was the founding force behind the Baptist Peacemaker journal, which is now in its 29th year of publication. He is survived by his wife of 44 years, Rosanne Williams Broome, ’63.
Linwood "Sid" Cheatham, ’61, died December 19, 2009. He was of the Baptist faith, an army veteran, and retired from Blair Mills.

Ruby Shaw Shepherd, ’57, died February 21, 2010. She owned and operated Ruby's Boutique.

Shirley Rogers Davis, ’57, died June 15, 2009. She retired from Liberty Life Insurance Company in Greenville and was a lifelong member of Beaverdam Baptist Church, where she was a member of the WMU and taught Sunday School for over 30 years.

David R. Smith, ’56, died March 20, 2010. He was a U.S. Navy veteran and was retired from Piedmont Natural Gas. He was a charter member of Trinity United Methodist Church and active for many years with the local and district Boy Scout organization. He is survived by his wife of 55 years, Marian Findley Smith, ’54.

Margie Campbell Holladay, ’55, died April 12, 2010. She worked as an administrative assistant for several companies in Charlotte, N.C. and Atlanta, Ga. before retiring with her husband to Jasper. She was an active member of Foothills Community Church in Marble Hill, Ga., and the Bent Tree Ladies Bible Study. She served the community as a volunteer at Piedmont Mountainside Hospital and as an election pollster.

Ray McDowell, ’51, died December 4, 2009. He was a member and the first pastor of Varennes Heights Baptist Church in Anderson, which began as a mission in 1954. Other pastorates included New Prospect Baptist in Hartwell, Ga.; Southside Baptist in Anderson; Shiloh Baptist in Starr; Congaree Baptist in St. Matthews; and Broadmouth Baptist in Honea Path. He served as treasurer and president of Tri-County Baptist Pastor's Conference in Honea Path and was moderator of the Saluda Baptist Association, where he was active with various committees. Since his retirement in 1991, Ray was active in revivals, interim pastorates, and pulpit supply. He was also a WWII veteran, having served as an army paratrooper.

Bobbie Grantland Rogers, ’48, died February 9, 2010. She excelled in teaching in Greenwood, Greenville and Easley, including East End and West End Elementary schools. She was a charter member of the Dorothy O. Scott Garden Club, a storyteller for the Pickens County Library, and a member of Easley First Baptist Church. She is survived by her husband of nearly sixty years, J. Harold Rogers, ’48.

Viola Bell Stanford, ’48, died March 27, 2010. She entered the Air Force in 1953 and served as a nurse at Ellington Air Force Base and later Fort Carson for 27 years. Survivors include her sisters, Mamye Earle Morris, ’45, and Patricia Bell, ’54.
Dorothy Stewart McKinney, '47, died June 4, 2010. She was a homemaker and attended Crescent Hill Baptist Church.

Frances Dorsett Griffin, '46, died February 10, 2009.

Cynthia Todd Parker, '44, died May 5, 2010, after a long illness. She was an instructor at Anderson in the 1940s. After raising her four children, she worked with the American Cancer Society and for UGA's Independent Study. She was a member and officer of the American Cancer Society's Auxiliary and Unit Board of Directors; member of the Roadrunners Club; member of UGA Women's Club; and member and clerical volunteer for First United Methodist Church in Athens. She is survived by her husband of 60 years, John Reid Parker, '48.

Marie Ellison McCoy, '44, died December 28, 2009. She was a member of the Anderson Garden Club and very supportive of the Special Olympics, Area 14. She was also a member of new Prospect Baptist Church.

Jeanne Coleman Robinson, '42, died October 11, 2009. She was a member of Shandon Presbyterian Church.

Lura Gilchrist Earle, '41, died April 3, 2008. She was a former employer of the South Carolina National Bank. She was a member of the Anderson Junior Assembly and Anderson Senior Assembly and a communicant of Grace Episcopal Church.

Robert Mullikin, '38, died December 2, 2009. A World War II veteran, Robert was a rural mail carrier for over 30 years and a lifelong farmer (Mullikin Farms). He was previously a school board trustee for Anderson School District 4 and had served on the Board of Directors of Walker McElmoyle Fire Station. He was a member of Six and Twenty Baptist Church for more than 70 years and served as a trustee, deacon, church secretary, treasurer and a member of the building committee.

Elizabeth Martin Ducworth, '38, died January 9, 2010.

Frances Pauline "Polly" Donald, '37, died March 21, 2010. She taught English and South Carolina history at Brunson-Dargan Junior High School and retired from the Darlington County School District. She was a member of several bridge clubs and the Old Homestead Club. Polly was also a lifelong member of the Society Hill Presbyterian Church, where she taught Sunday school, served as an elder and church historian, and was active in the Women of the Church for many years.

Jeanette Morris Moorhead, '37, died May 22, 2010. She had previously taught in Anderson County schools for several years and had set up an endowed scholarship fund at Anderson University to benefit students pursuing a career in teaching. Jeanette was a member of Central Presbyterian Church and past president of the McArthur Sunday School Class. She was a member of the Anderson County Woman's Club and the American Legion Auxiliary and was a volunteer tutor for the Literacy Association.

Edith Mahaffey Darnell, '34, died June 5, 2010. Her career as a bookkeeper was spent at B & B Motors of Barnwell. She was a long time member of the Barnwell First Baptist Church and recently attended St. Andrews Baptist Church of Columbia.

Frances Jolley Kitching, '31, died July 8, 2009, at the age of 97. She taught in Anderson School District 5 for over forty years and was also an instructor with SCETV. Frances was a lifelong member of Orrville Baptist Church, where she was Director of Youth for fifty plus years.

Cecelia Lucas King, '27, died January 31, 2010 at the age of 101. She had retired as a longtime bookkeeper for D.M. Mays Oil Company. Cecelia was a member of Bethel United Methodist Church and was very active in her church and community.