Catalog Information

This catalog does not constitute a contract between a student and Anderson University either expressed or implied; and Anderson University reserves the right at any time to change, delete, or add to any of the content at its sole discretion. This policy also applies to the Student Handbook, The Music Handbook, The Teacher Education Handbook, and any other official university publication that may contain descriptions of academic program requirements, student services, or rules and regulations regarding student behavior. The catalog contains the program offerings, the graduation requirements, the academic policies, and the student services in effect on May 15, 2009. The administration and faculty believe that the educational and other programs of Anderson University described in this catalog are effective and valuable. However, the ultimate results of programs offered in terms of achievement, employment, professional licensing, or other measure, are dependent on factors outside the programs, such as the personality and energy of the student, governmental or institutional regulations, and market conditions. Therefore, except as specifically stated herein, the University makes no representation or contract that following a particular course or curriculum will result in specific achievement, employment or qualification for employment, admission to degree programs, or licensing for particular professions or occupations.

Non-Discrimination

Anderson University accepts students on the basis of academic qualifications, character, and evidence of the potential to benefit from the university experience. The University accepts all qualified applicants without regard to race, religious creed, place of national origin, sex, age, disability, or ethnic group.

Complaint Procedure

Students and other interested parties who have complaints regarding institutional policies and practices, or who wish to request deviation or release from the requirements of University programs or policies, must submit written statements summarizing their concerns to the following offices: all minors are subject to the following guidelines:

1. Enrollment Management – matters pertaining to admissions and financial aid.
2. Academic Affairs – matters relating to academic programs and policies.
3. Student Development – matters relating to student development programs and policies.
4. Finance and Administration – matters relating to financial, business operations, and facilities (including buildings and grounds) programs and policies.
5. Athletics – matters relating to athletic programs.
6. Information Services – matters relating to information services, systems and technology.

Each office will respond in a timely manner and in writing to each specific written complaint.
