Frequently Asked Questions: the Title IV Authorization Form

- To what types of financial aid does the Title IV Authorization pertain?
Pell Grants, ACG and SMART Grants, Stafford, Perkins, Parent PLUS and Grad PLUS loans and SEOG. It does not include scholarships, university grants, Tuition Assistance Programs, or other aid.
- Does the form need to be signed each semester?
No, the authorization form remains in effect while you are an Anderson University student (including breaks in enrollment). It may be rescinded at any time (See Title IV Rescind Form).
- Will signing the Authorization Form help me?
Yes. By signing the form, any excess financial aid (either student or Parent PLUS) will be permitted to be applied to prior, future or certain miscellaneous charges on your student account. Importantly, this will help prevent an “account hold” for unpaid charges, which would block you from registering for future semesters, obtaining grades and receiving transcripts.
- Must the Authorization Form be signed in order to have Title IV funds applied to library fines and other fees?
Yes. The Authorization Form also must be signed to authorize the University to utilize Title IV funds to cover traffic tickets, and fines for overdue library books, replacement ID cards, and other miscellaneous charges.
- If I do not sign the form, will my financial aid be delayed?
No. However, you are responsible for making payments to cover any unpaid charges, and that payment must be paid by the applicable deadline date.
- I signed the form, but still received a refund check from Anderson University. Why was that?
Federal regulations require that Anderson University return the funds at the end of the loan period (for loans) or the end of the payment period (for other FSA programs) in the award year for which they were awarded in excess of all the items you authorized us to pay.
- I still have questions – who can I talk to?
